

Voluntary Surrender Submittal Form

Per ABIH[®] policy, a Diplomate agrees to voluntarily surrender their CIH[®] or CAIH[®] certification under the following terms.

The Diplomate:

1. Must submit this form prior to expiration of their ABIH certification.
2. Cannot be engaged in an unresolved ABIH ethics case.
3. Relinquishes their ABIH certification but is not restricted from practicing industrial hygiene.
4. Can no longer use the ABIH certification designation except when also referencing the years of certification, e.g., Certified Industrial Hygienist[®], 1987-2015.
5. Can no longer use the ABIH embossing seal or stamp for any professional activity.
6. Is relieved of certification maintenance requirements and fees.
7. Will be listed in the ABIH Private Roster¹ as a Former Diplomate, showing name and years of certification.
8. May reactivate at any time. See the reactivation portion of the ABIH web site.
9. Will be subject to ABIH ethics case provisions if found to be in violation of this agreement's terms.

Use the following options to share additional information if you are *in good standing*². You may change these selections at any time in the future by contacting ABIH. Select one, both or neither.

- Public Roster: Yes, list me as a Former Diplomate, showing my name and years of certification.
- Private Roster¹: Yes, list my contact information. I will be responsible for maintaining my contact information.

¹ The Private Roster is accessible only to current and former Diplomates in good standing.

² No unresolved ethics issues and paid up on fees.
